Express Your Ideas and Concerns Regarding Social and Political Issues by Submitting Your Artwork to the 2017 International FL3TCH3R Exhibit at ETSU's Reece Museum

The 2017 5th Annual FL3TCH3R EXHIBIT is an international juried exhibit focused on socially and politically engaged art. Socially and politically engaged art has been integral in creative expression since the beginning of visual arts. This exhibition explores the current trends and trajectory in this field and these collective creative works hopefully serve as an avenue or agent for societal transformation and exposure of social and political points of view. The goal is to recognize and advance this endeavor by providing a venue for the exhibition of socially and politically engaged art. Furthermore, the exhibit's proceeds after expenses will fund the Fletcher H. Dyer Memorial Scholarship for an art and design student.

The FL3TCH3R Exhibit is pleased to announce internationally renowned artist and illustrator, Anita Kunz, as our 2017 juror. Canadian by birth, Anita Kunz's magazine covers have illustrated the arts, politics and politicians as well as featuring celebrities, including Michael Jackson and leaders such as Bill Clinton, George Bush and Donald Trump. Kunz's work and cover art has been seen in and on covers of Time magazine, Rolling Stone, Vanity Fair, The New Yorker, GQ, The New York Times, and many others.

The FL3TCH3R EXHIBIT was established in memory of Fletcher Hancock Dyer, a BFA senior at ETSU who passed away in 2009 in a motorcycle accident. The exhibit was created to honor Fletcher's legacy and passion to incorporate social and political concerns as commentary in his artwork. Fletcher wrote in a high school essay: "I might attempt to right political, social and religious wrongs by showing the rest of society a glimpse of how I feel about serious issues in the world ... Hopefully the awareness that I can help create will spark an interest in a movement that others will follow." In addition to providing an opportunity for socially relevant expression, the FL3TCH3R Exhibit supports the annual Fletcher H. Dyer Memorial Scholarship for an ETSU Art & Design student.
